Dr John Moore

Publications, Conferences, and Other Research Activity

Articles in Peer-Reviewed Journals

Edited Books

Chapters in Books

Scott, D. and Moore, J.M. (2014) “It’s a long road to wisdom, but it is a short one to being ignored”: Moving forward towards abolition’. In: Moore, J.M., Rolston, B., Scott, D. and Tomlinson, M., eds. Beyond Criminal Justice. European Group for the Study of Deviance and Social Control,

Non-refereed Journal Articles

Reports

Other Forms of Research/Scholarship

Conference Addresses and Papers

September 2016 ‘Justice after Empire: Colonial and postcolonial law(lessness), (dis)order and (in)justice and prospects for a just future’ Keynote Address, European Group for the Study of Deviance and Social Control Conference, University of Minho, Braga, Portugal

July 2016 ‘Built for inequality in a diverse world: A brief history of criminal justice’ British Society of Criminology Conference, Nottingham

April 2015 ‘What are the alternatives to prison?’ Centre for Crime and Justice Studies and Liverpool University event, London.

Dec. 2014 ‘Things Fall Apart: From Law, Order and Justice to Lawlessness, Disorder and Injustice’ Division of Sociology Seminar, University of Abertay, Dundee

July 2014 ‘Is the Empire coming home? Liberalism, exclusion and the punitiveness of the British State’ British Society of Criminology Conference, Liverpool University

April 2014 ‘Criminal Justice and Abolitionist responses to Sexual Violence’ Penal Law, Abolitionist and Anarchism, Shire Hall, Nottingham

Dec. 2012 ‘It is all in the mind: how the pseudo-science of phrenology changed penology’s understanding of the reformation of criminals.’ Bristol University, Department of Historical Studies Research Seminar

July 2012 ‘An unwelcome colonial penal experiment: How the trial of Alexander Maconochie’s “Mark System” on Norfolk Island penal settlement between 1840 and 1844 was viewed from New South Wales.’ Open University, International Centre for the History of Crime, Policing and Justice, Research Seminar

Sept. 2011 ‘What about the murders and rapists? Difficult questions for Abolitionism’ European Group for the Study of Deviance and Social Control Conference, Université de Savoie, Chambéry, France

June 2011 ‘Drugs: the harms of criminal justice policy’ Social Science in the City Seminar Series, University of the West of England

April 2011 ‘When criminal justice creates social problems and threatens community safety and cohesion: A critical evaluation of the war on drugs’ Newport Centre for Criminal and Community Justice Conference University of Wales, Newport