Living at Newman

All our halls are located on campus, meaning you're a short walk away from your lectures and all that's on offer within our student-centred campus. Living on campus allows you to get fully immersed in university life. It's also a great opportunity to gain independence and make new friends. Our location in Bartley Green is ideal for those who like to get away from the hustle and bustle, but still want to be close enough to enjoy the city attractions. We're just a short bus ride away from all that Britain's second city has to offer.
