Birmingham Newman University is located on Genners Lane, Bartley Green, Birmingham, West Midlands, B32 3NT.

Birmingham Newman University

The university is named after the 19th century cardinal St John Henry Newman who wrote 'The idea of a university' in 1852, and we are still guided by the vision of a community of scholars. The university is built around community, and the belief that education enables students to develop new ways of understanding the world, to help make a positive impact within it. This is delivered through smaller class sizes and an interactive learning style. The Catholic ethos has been retained and our students are from all faiths and none. The university is proud of its diverse, friendly and inclusive environment, where students are welcomed and receive transformational learning opportunities together with support in preparing for employment.

The modern single campus, eight miles southwest of Birmingham city centre has had a recent £20M investment into the campus facilities, building Halls for 200 students, and improving the teaching, learning and social spaces for students with outdoor and indoor facilities. A new law court, a careers and employability hub together with a computer science lab, and accessible student helpdesk are some of the additional facilities and improvements made for our students. The university continues to build its environmental sustainability, already generating 20% 193000kW, of our energy used via on site of solar energy.

In addition, the building of a new School of Nursing and Allied Health has been established to broaden the curriculum including new courses in Adult Nursing, Mental Health Nursing and Physiotherapy which started in September 2023. The university will be providing qualified practitioners from diverse backgrounds, for the local West Midlands Health sector, and beyond.

We are proud to be ranked as 1st for Student Satisfaction 2025 by the Good University Guide, while also we were 1st in the West Midlands and 7th in England for full-time student satisfaction in the National Student Survey 2024. Enrolments from non-selective state schools are one of the highest in the country (99%) and Birmingham Newman University has the biggest proportion of students who are first in their family to experience higher education (72.2%), with more than 45% of students coming from Black, Asian or ethnic minority backgrounds. The university runs outreach programmes and has many partnerships with more than 50 schools and further education colleges in the region offering support and opportunity to pupils.

The university is 'teaching-led' and does not employ staff for research alone but ensures that students have regular contact with active researchers. Birmingham Newman University has also retained its Silver status in the latest Teaching Excellence Framework, which was published by the Office for Students. With our distinctive commitment to transformational impact, we maintain our mission to make a positive difference to individuals and communities through our excellent. In the latest Research Excellence Framework (REF 2021) Newman doubled our number of academic teams submitting work, and also doubled research of world-leading status. Research is undertaken across a wide range of academic and professional disciplines and attracts external funding.

Our mission

To serve our diverse communities by making high-quality, globally connected education accessible to all those who are able to benefit from it, as well as engaging in research, scholarship and professional practice that informs our learning and teaching and has a positive impact on society. Birmingham Newman University prides itself on community and inclusion both on campus in relation to our students but also in terms of outreach and engagement.

Birmingham Newman University is currently implementing the 2020 – 2025 Strategic Framework which was derived from conversations with staff, students and our wider communities. It represents a widely shared view of the future of Birmingham Newman University

This framework presents our objects, vision, mission, values and six strategic objectives, with a focus on working in partnership with, and transforming the lives of our students.

Our values:

- We champion and give voice to the catholic traditions of education, equality, and social justice.
- We respect and value all contributions, recognising that we are a single community, inspired and united by our shared vision and mission.
- We place student learning and welfare at the centre of all we do and we offer a nurturing environment for all students.
- We are ethical, honest and humane. In difficult situations, we will seek to work with understanding, kindness and compassion.
- We recognise and embrace the power of community and build respectful relationships that help us excel.
- A mission of service motivates us, seeking the common good with care and love.

Our strategic objectives:

- To transform students' lives
- To work in partnership with our students
- To grow our institution
- To nurture our staff
- Add to knowledge and cultivate wisdom
- Serve our diverse community and the wider world

The 2020 – 25 strategic plans focus on the success of our students, and the growth of student numbers. Our growth will be responsible and sustainable aligned to our mission and values enabling students to gain an outstanding experience and to succeed in their chosen careers. The university offers opportunities for lifelong learning for those returning to learning or seeking a career change irrespective of age, background, or previous educational experience.

Providing a personalised student experience is a hallmark of the Birmingham Newman University offer, we listen to our students to continually shape the university experience, to ensure that our students are at the heart of all that we do.

Purpose of the post

To support students and staff in use of specialist equipment and related processes. They facilitate practical sessions and play a key role in ensuring that the environments and technical equipment meet the needs of the wide range of scheduled practical activities.

This wide and varied role typically involves supervising the preparation of relevant materials for practical classes, providing dedicated technical support for bespoke clinical and simulation systems, being involved in supporting students and academic colleagues in practical sessions and gaining valuable experience in the customisation, configuration and use of bespoke applications/hardware used throughout the institute.

The post holder will work in close collaboration with the SoNaH academic team, liaising directly with the academic lead for practice skills and simulation and other key stakeholders to ensure the smooth operation and technical functionality of the clinical skills spaces, contribute to maintaining and developing the currency of the facilities, and proactively develop their own knowledge and understanding of current, new, and emerging technologies.

1. MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES

- To deliver high quality technical support relation to teaching, research and enterprise in the associated curriculum areas.
- To provide technical support in relation to the design and development of bespoke hardware and/or the experimental systems used in the undergraduate/postgraduate teaching, projects, and research in this area.
- Responsible for collaboration with key stakeholders to assist with modifying and maintaining equipment, and rigs used in relation to teaching, research and enterprise activities in this area.
- Support the use of specialist software used in simulation-based teaching
- Provide expert advice related to the procurement, use and implementation of the technologies associated with Clinical Skills and Simulation
- Present and demonstrate technologies, processes and/or associated equipment to groups of students, staff or other identified stakeholders as required.
- Responsible for the maintenance of all specialist equipment in the designated area/s, providing installation and hardware support where appropriate or liaising with external partners as required ensuring that the systems remain operational.
- Responsible for the provision of health and safety and risk assessment for the designated work environment, ensuring that all relevant risk assessments are up to date and fit for purpose.
- Maintain, develop, and broaden his/her own knowledge of processes, systems and procedures associated with the area evaluating and implement new technical advances, innovations in hardware, software or processes in line with professional practice.
- Ensure that the designated areas are used appropriately and that activities within adhere to the University's policies and procedures (including Health and Safety, Data Protection, and Equality and Diversity).
- Manage stock levels including maintenance of a comprehensive stock and equipment database, as well as tracking servicing and repair of equipment.
- Monitor all servicing of equipment including responsibility for ensuring regular testing of equipment, in line with manufacturers' guidance and compliance with Legal Requirements as detailed in LOLER, RIDDOR and COSHH regulations
- Support the organisation and booking of clinical skills spaces via online systems to ensure optimal utilisation.

- Undertake other temporary duties commensurate with the level of the role, as agreed through the appropriate line management structure to meet the requirements of the department.

It is expected that the post holder will not normally take annual leave during key points in the academic calendar and that due to the nature of work patterns in this sector he/she may be required to assist with cover of events scheduled outside of normal core hours.

2. Health & Safety:

- Under the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 the post holder must take reasonable care of their own health and safety and that of any other person who may be affected by their acts or omissions. The post holder must also co-operate with the University on all matters concerning health and safety and not interfere with, or misuse, anything provided for the purpose of health, safety or welfare. The post holder must follow Health & Safety requirements in line with their training and instruction, and report to management any unsafe acts or conditions, defects in equipment or facilities that have the potential to affect health and safety. The post holder must report to management any injuries they receive whilst at work.
- Where post holders line manage staff and services they will be responsible for the health, safety and welfare of those staff and services in accordance with the University's Health & Safety Organisational Arrangements.

3. General Terms

- This job description summarises the main duties and accountabilities of the post and is not exclusive. The post holder is required to undertake other duties of similar level of responsibility. It is anticipated that this job description will change over time in accordance with the needs of the role and the post holder will be consulted on any proposed amendments.
- It is a condition of employment that staff will not disclose any information obtained in the course of their duties other than to those entitled to receive it. The post holder must ensure that the confidentiality of personal data remains secure and that 'restricted information' or 'highly restricted information' to which they have access remains confidential during and after their employment at Newman University. All staff must undergo appropriate data protection training as defined by the University's Data Protection Policy and comply with the University's Information Security Policy and IT User Policies including the General Conditions of use of Computing and Network Facilities, Bring Your Own Device Policy and Wireless Networking Policy.

- The University is committed to equality of opportunity. All staff are required to comply with current legislation, University policies and good practice guidance.
- All staff are required to act in a way that safeguards the health and wellbeing of children and vulnerable adults at all times. The post holder must be familiar with and adhere to appropriate safeguarding policies and guidance and participate in related mandatory/statutory training. Managers have a responsibility to ensure their team members understand their individual responsibilities with regard to safeguarding children and vulnerable adults.
- All staff are required to participate in the University appraisal process and should ensure they are familiar with the process, attend the mandatory training and plan time to prepare for their appraisal. Following the appraisal, staff are expected to undertake in any necessary learning and development and work towards the objectives that have been set.
- The University expects staff to attend any training designated as mandatory and to undertake learning and development activities to support their role.
- All absence from work must be reported in accordance with the University's Absence Management Policy and recorded on iTrent and staff are expected to be familiar with and follow the Policy.
