Birmingham Newman University

Birmingham Newman University is named after the 19th-century cardinal St John Henry Newman, whose 1852 work “The Idea of a University” continues to inspire our vision of a connected, supportive community of scholars. We believe that education is transformative, enabling students to understand the world in new ways and to make a positive difference within it. This is delivered through smaller class sizes, interactive learning, and a personal approach that puts student success and wellbeing at the centre.

Rooted in a Catholic tradition that champions education, equality, and social justice, we welcome students of all faiths and none. We take pride in our diverse, friendly, and inclusive environment, where every student is valued, supported, and encouraged to achieve their goals. Our mission is to serve diverse communities by making high-quality, globally connected education accessible to all who can benefit, and by carrying out research, scholarship, and professional practice that has a positive impact on.

Our modern single campus, eight miles southwest of Birmingham city centre, has recently benefited from a £20 million investment. This includes new halls for 200 students, improved teaching and social spaces, and enhanced facilities such as a state of the art law court, a careers and employability hub, a computer science lab, and an accessible student helpdesk. We are committed to sustainability, already generating 20 % of our energy needs on-site through solar power.

In 2023, we expanded our academic portfolio with the launch of the School of Nursing and Allied Health, introducing programmes in Adult Nursing, Mental Health Nursing, and Physiotherapy. This reflects our strategic aim to grow in ways that meet real world needs producing highly skilled practitioners from diverse backgrounds to support the West Midlands health sector and beyond.

Our focus on partnership with students and staff drives our success. In 2025, we were ranked 1st in England for Student Satisfaction in the Good University Guide, and in the 2024 National Student Survey we placed 1st in the West Midlands and 7th in England for full-time student satisfaction. We are among the top UK universities for widening participation: 99 % of our students come from non-selective state schools, 72.2 % are the first in their family to attend university, and over 45 % come from Black, Asian, or ethnic minority backgrounds.

We are a teaching-led university, ensuring our students benefit from regular contact with active researchers whose work enriches learning. Our Silver rating in the Teaching Excellence Framework reflects our commitment to high-quality teaching, while the latest Research Excellence Framework saw us double both the number of academic teams submitting work and our volume of world-leading research.

Our strategic objectives guide everything we do: transforming students’ lives, working in partnership with them, growing responsibly, nurturing our staff, adding to knowledge and cultivating wisdom, and serving our diverse community and the wider world. Together, we foster a respectful, collaborative culture that empowers people to succeed and to make a meaningful contribution to society.
